

SOLVE TELEPHONE TRUST PROBLEM

Regulation by Inter-State Commerce Commission is Means of Solution

IS WICKERSHAM'S PLAN

Commission Will Regulate Companies Instead of Sherman Anti-Trust Law Method

OUT OF GOVERNMENT'S HANDS

WASHINGTON, JAN. 20.—Regulation by the inter-state commerce commission of the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph company and not the compulsory competitive provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law, will be the means of solving in large measure the so-called telephone trust problem, according to Attorney General Wickersham who today announced that he had referred the whole question to the commission for investigation and action.

This move terminates the investigation by the department of justice of the alleged $600,000,000 telephone trust, against which independent telephone companies have made charges of unfair treatment and of the employment of methods destructive of competition.

Will Begin Investigation.
The commission's investigation will be far reaching in effect and out of it is expected to grow the outline of a governmental policy with respect to the telephone and telegraph. It must be determined according to officers, whether, in the interest and convenience of the public a telephone or telegraph monopoly under rigid regulation should be tolerated by the federal government; or whether the government should take over utilities; or finally whether competition should be enforced under the Sherman anti-trust law and monopoly prohibited.

Chairman Lane of the inter-state commerce commission, formally announced tonight that "in response to information submitted to it by the attorney general today" the inter-state commerce commission will make an investigation into the operations, rates and practices of the various telephone companies.

Pointing to the complaints which have been lodged with the government against the American Telephone and Telegraph company generally known as the Bell telephone system, the attorney general says in his communication to the commission:

"Many of these questions, it seems to me, cannot be appropriately dealt with by the law department of the government, but should be made the subject of regulation after a careful investigation of the whole subject by your honorable body. The powers vested in you by statute appear to me to be ample to enable you to make a comprehensive and thorough investigation of the matter. It may be that as a result of such investigation you will conclude that additional legislation should be suggested to congress. Quite a number of the states have enacted laws vesting in public utilities commissions or similar bodies, jurisdiction which has been executed in some instances with respect to the acquisition of telephone lines of one company by another, and with respect to the interchange of business and facilities between telegraph and telephone lines. State regulation, however, cannot be a satisfactory method of ultimate solution of the questions arising out of telephone operation. The value of a telephone service depends largely on the facility of connecting every individual telephone user with any point upon any telephone line in the United States, but this should be attained under conditions which secure to the public the maximum of convenience upon the most reasonable terms consistent with a fair return on the investment and under suitable supervision and control by your honorable body."

Dealing with the powers of commission, Mr. Wickersham points out that the inter-state commerce act markets telephone, telegraph and cable companies engaged in interstate or foreign business common carriers, requires that all their rates shall be just and reasonable and prohibits the granting of undue or unreasonable preference to any one. That section of the act requiring common carriers to file with the commission and keep open to public inspection, schedules of rates, fares, and charges, the attorney general adds, probably is not broad enough to extend to telephone and telegraph companies. He holds, however, that act confers on the commission ample power of investigation on its own initiative, and he points to the section of the law specifically authorizing the commission to fix just and reasonable rates and to prohibit unjust and discriminatory practices by telephone and telegraph companies.

AUTO BANDIT KILLS WOULD-BE CAPTOR

DETECTIVE SHOT THROUGH HEART WITH OWN WEAPON

Bandit Makes Short Work of Peter Hart of Chicago Force Who Attempts to Make Arrest Single Handed—Murderer Escapes.

CHICAGO, JAN. 20.—A climax to the search for members of the automobile bandit crew came today with the shooting and killing of Detective Peter Hart with his own revolver, supposedly by one of the gang. The detective was shot through the heart with his own revolver when he entered a flat at 1617 South Wabash avenue for the purpose of arresting "Bob" Webb, said to be an accomplice of James B. Perry, a confessed bandit now under arrest.

After shooting Hart, the assassin leaped through a window to an adjoining roof, ran the length of a block and then climbing down a fire escape, escaped in a crowd.

Two other detectives who were aiding Hart in watching the flat rushed into the room soon after the slayer had fled. Hart died before they could surround a physician.

Witnesses Death Struggle.
A woman placed under arrest tonight was identified as Miss Isabella Hastings, a sister of Mrs. Michael Casella, whose husband was a witness to the shooting.

According to Casella's story, Webb was not in the flat when Hart arrived, but knocked at the door a few minutes later. The detective admitted Webb and covered him with a revolver. Webb submitted to a search and when Hart laid his revolver on a table, the alleged bandit attacked the detective. It was while Hart was holding his prisoner on the floor that Webb obtained the revolver and shot him. Casella said he was so badly frightened that the thought of interfering did not occur to him until after Webb had fled.

It also was learned tonight Webb was in the flat, hiding behind a piano when Miss Hastings was arrested. He fled soon afterward and was returning to obtain his suit case when he encountered Hart.

LOWER HOUSE OF WYOMING

LEGISLATURE IN STORMY SESSION

Near Riot and Personal Encounter Between Party Leaders Close Monday's Session of Two Wyoming Lawmakers.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 20.—Convened a week, the lower house of the Wyoming legislature tonight is as far from organization as when it first assembled.

A near riot and a personal encounter between the permanent and the temporary speaker closed a session today marked by an apparent attempt of Speaker Pratt, Progressive Republican hitherto working with the scant Democratic majority to secure for himself the control of the committee on privileges and elections on which depends the seating or the ejection of three Democratic or Republican representatives which would in turn give either party a majority on joint ballot and cause the re-election or defeat of Senator Francis E. Warren.

Speaker Pratt nominated a committee in accordance with his ideas and Judge Metz through a resolution named another.

When a test vote was attempted by the Democrats the speaker called a Republican to the chair whereupon Judge Metz called on Representative Wood, a Democrat and speaker pro tem to take the chair. Speaker Pratt pulled Wood from the chair, assuming it himself and the house broke into a tumult with both speakers assuming authority, giving contradictory rulings. During the tumult the house adjourned until tomorrow. The Democrats purpose to force the Metz committee through tomorrow. If they succeed they will unseat three Republicans, thus securing a majority on joint ballot, and then elect to the senate.

ALLEGED PLOT TO KILL MADERO

Washington, Jan. 20.—Anarchists in the United States are said to be plotting against the life of President Madero and his United States and Mexican secret service operatives are trying to ferret out the plotters. This state department was informed of the arrest of two alleged anarchists in Florida tonight. Officials admit they may be conspirators.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 20.—

Control that Russia and other countries might exercise over immigration to the United States led the senate today to refuse to accept the conference report on the Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill. The bill was sent back to conference with the senate's disapproval of the provision requiring certificates of character from emigrants coming from countries where such certificates are issued.

This feature of the bill was attacked by Senators LaFollette, O'Gorman, Root, Stone and others as dangerous to the future of American immigration.

The provision had been recommended by the federal immigration officers. Senator Lodge in charge of the conference report, asked that the bill be sent back to conference where the "certificate character" provision probably will be eliminated.

Employees Get 8-Hour Law.
Provisions of the 8-hour law, applicable to all employees on government contract work, were today extended by congress to employees on river and harbor improvements. The supreme court had held that laborers on river and harbor improvements were seamen and not susceptible to the provisions of the 8-hour law. To overcome this the senate today passed the house bill amending the original 8-hour law.

Increase in Appropriation.
On account of additional work in connection with the enforcement of the pure food and forestry laws and the development of the department's educational operations, the annual department of agriculture appropriation bill submitted to the house today, carries a total of $17,593,175, an increase of nearly a million dollars over last year's appropriation. Among other increases carried in the bill and endorsed in the committee's report are $200,000 for meat inspection, $75,000 for farm management educational work and $50,000 to be used in determining the feasibility of establishing a bureau of markets.

Petitions for a market bureau have come from all sections of the country, according to the report.

WILL PUT AN END TO TRUSTS IN NEW JERSEY

GOV. WILSON DECLARES BILLS INTRODUCED WILL MAKE GOOD

Seven Measures Tending to Put An End to Trusts and Monopolies are Introduced in New Jersey State Legislature.

TRENTON, N. J., JAN. 20.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson to day reached what he considers the climax in his program of reform as governor of New Jersey. Seven bills making for the most active revision of corporation laws in the history of the state were introduced tonight in the state legislature.

"These acts are designed to put an end to trusts and monopolies under the laws of New Jersey," declared Governor Wilson in a prepared statement declaring the measures, "and I confidently predict that they will accomplish that much desired result."

Though the principle of bills which seek to prevent monopoly, underselling in local markets, mergers, the exercise of holding companies and the issuance of watered stock is one which the governor emphasized repeatedly during the national campaign he declared tonight. Proposed legislation had been drawn with the conditions in the state of New Jersey alone in mind.

Bills Embody Wilson's Ideas.
"These bills embody my ideas of the way New Jersey should deal with the question," he said. National legislation might have to be different.

The feature of the bills that attracted most attention was the provision making violations of the proposed law a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment as well as fines. As the acts are administration measures and the Democrats have a comfortable majority in both houses, Democratic leaders were practically unanimous in predicting that they would be enacted with little opposition.

While the bills, it is claimed, take away none of the rights of exercising corporations, they do restrict these companies from extending their holdings and make them subject to the provisions forbidding under-selling, discriminations and other monopolistic practices. Present companies will be affected so far as future stock issuances and mergers are concerned.

Among the larger corporations, chartered under New Jersey laws are the United States Steel corporation, The Standard Oil Company, the American Tobacco company and the American Sugar Refining company. The International Harvester company, the Amalgamated Copper company, the United States Lumber company and the Rock Island railroad company.

YOUNG O'BRIEN IS DISCHARGED

BY JUDGE JAMES A. CREIGHTON

Lad Charged With Murder is Not Sentenced—Jury Were in Session Three Days and Three Nights.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 20.—After having been locked up three days and three nights the jury in the case of 17 years old Charles O'Brien charged with the murder of Warren DeFrates was discharged by Judge James A. Creighton in the Sangamon circuit court late this afternoon.

Thirty-two ballots were taken, the last being 7 to 5 for acquittal. Crowds have filled the court room and there has been intense interest in the sensational evidence. Young O'Brien was charged with having deliberately murdered DeFrates with whom he was employed in a local meter works, and who enraged O'Brien by assigning him to some work. Another trial will be had at this term of court.

The case was not brought up again during three terms of court and was dismissed according to law. Both Schenk and his wife had fled suits for divorce.

Colonel Goethals expects to leave Washington tomorrow and will sail for Panama a week from Wednesday.

The house bill, making it a federal offense to steal freight, express or baggage from trains in transit, was today favorably reported by the senate judiciary committee. It is intended to remove the difficulty of fixing the location of such offenses as long as they remained punishable only under state laws. The measure provides for trial in the federal as well as the state courts and fixes penalties ranging as high as fines of

POLITICAL SITUATION APPEARS UNCHANGED

Arrivals at Springfield See Little Change in Deadlock Since Thursday

MEET IN SESSION TODAY

Neither O'Connell or Dunne is in Capital City to Help Solve Problem

DENEEN READY TO MOVE OUT

SPRINGFIELD, JAN. 20.—If any deal which will break the legislative deadlock has been perfected since the week end adjournment last Thursday the rank and file of the members returning here tonight were not aware of it. Consequently, legislation that may have been agreed to among the leaders must be made acceptable to the large body of members before delivery can be made by the parties to it. Despite persistent rumors from Chicago that the deadlock will be broken tomorrow by the election of a speaker, early arrivals to day and tonight are loath to believe that the break is so close at hand. They agreed that in a situation like this a break may come at any time and they are looking for it tomorrow.

If the two leaders have agreed on a basis for a trade or combination, the details of the plan must be made known to the members who are expected to put it into execution by their votes. This probably will take at least one day and possibly two or three. If it becomes necessary to whip into line any considerable number of members to expect the deliveries, the rumored break may not come this week. Neither Governor-elect Dunne nor his political advisor William O'Connell of Chicago, arrived tonight although reports from Chicago for three days past indicated that both would come to Springfield to day to take an active hand in the fight. The members who came early to day looked for the new governor-elect and Mr. O'Connell until the arrival of late trains and were surprised when it became definitely known that both remained in Chicago. Like every one else here, Governor-elect Dunne had heard the rumors, from Chicago, that an immediate settlement of the speaker-ship fight is in sight.

Deneen Ready to Move.

In consequence he is in readiness tonight to move from the executive offices on short notice. Having confidence in the views of Attorney General Stead, expressed in an opinion last week, when it was held that Governor Deneen cannot turn over the executive offices until the vote has been canvassed by the legislature, the governor is not in any hostile attitude, although reports continue to reach here that Governor-elect Dunne, fortified with other legal advice, will make pre-emptory demand for possession of the office this week. Friends of James J. Brady, the new state auditor, were grieved to day by the sudden death of Thomas Brady, a brother of the new state officer. Mr. Brady, who was 30 years old moved to Springfield from Chicago with his mother, brother and sister, when the family took up their residence here early in the year. He had been ill only a few days with an attack of pneumonia.

TIME HONORED INAUGURAL BALL IS ELIMINATED

Committee Decides That Public Reception is Out of Their Jurisdiction and is Up to Congress.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The time honored inaugural ball, the climax of the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of the president of the United States will not be given this year. This compliance with President-elect Wilson's wishes the inaugural committee at a special meeting today, unanimously decided to eliminate it.

The committee also decided that a public reception at the capitol or elsewhere, suggested by Governor Wilson as a substitute for the ball, was not within its jurisdiction and if one is held, congress must appear and make the necessary arrangements for it.

MAY MEAN ANOTHER INDIAN OUTBREAK

UTES LEAVE RESERVATION TO GUARD THEIR TRIBESMAN

So Threatening Has the Attitude of the Indians Become That Whites of Southwestern Colorado Are Armed For a Possible Outbreak.

CORTEZ, COLO., JAN. 20.—

Without leaving any trace of their whereabouts, the band of fifty Ute Indians who left the Ute reservation Saturday rather than deliver one of their tribesmen, Big Rabbit, to the civil authorities or the Indian agent, left their stronghold in the Ute mountains early this morning. John S. Spears, the Indian agent, declared that he does not know where the Indians have gone, whether back to the reservation or further into the range. If the Indians are on the reservation, however, they have not been located and are in hiding.

So threatening has the attitude of the Utes become that the white citizens of southwestern Colorado, in the immediate vicinity of the reservation, have armed themselves and are momentarily looking for a desperate outbreak. The Utes who have remained on the reservation are becoming greatly excited and it is believed they are arming themselves. Indian Agent Spears received word from the interior department at Washington today asking for detailed information concerning the uprising.

Late this afternoon Sheriff Wawith was informed that the Indians had retreated further into the mountains and are now guarding Big Rabbit in the pit of a canon.

DISCOVERY MAY REVOLUTIONIZE METHOD OF ELECTRIC LIGHTING

French Scientist Discovers Means of Production of "Cold Light."

Paris, Jan. 20.—M. Dussad, a French scientist, who has discovered a means for the production of what he terms "cold light" today made public some details of his discovery, which, it is thought, may revolutionize electric lighting. He has succeeded in concentrating a 200 candle power light on one point and in passing 32 volts into an eight volt lamp, which with the ordinary light would burst. Experiments with this lamp have established that the new light is absolutely without danger, as no heat is given off and it requires a hundred times less current than the ordinary lamp. It can be worked by a tiny battery or sufficient motive power can be obtained from a jet of water from an ordinary faucet or even a squirrel turning a gear.

Rechad Receives Long Cipher Messages From Constantinople With no Results

TURKS WANT INTERVENTION

LONDON, JAN. 20.—The Balkan plenipotentiaries who are awaiting the Turkish reply, do not attempt to conceal their impatience and firm determination to prevent Turkey from postponing settlement of the war longer than a week. Meanwhile unofficial conversations have begun among the allies regarding their inter-Balkan determinations.

Dr. Daneff, head of the Bulgarian delegation, and M. Venizelos, the Greek premier, were engrossed in this task today. As no agreement has yet been reached concerning Saloniki, the Greeks hope to have no difficulty in retaining the town when the Bulgarians get Adrianople.

Rechad Pasha received long cipher messages from Constantinople this afternoon and it is asserted that he was instructed to confer with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, with the object of obtaining direct intervention by the powers under the form of mediation, or in another way, if more acceptable, so that Turkey might be spared the humiliation of ceding Adrianople at first hand.

BY LAWS ADOPTED FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

BUSINESS MEN HELD MEETING
AT COURT HOUSE MONDAY.

Report of Committee Followed to Large Extent—Each Section Was Discussed in Friendly Spirit—Portion Relating to Committee Question or Candidates Cut Out.

A meeting of the Business Men's organization was held Monday night at the Court House to discuss and adopt by-laws. Although it was a somewhat story night there was a large attendance of members indicating the interest felt in the organization. John J. Reeve served as the chairman and Paul Frichney as secretary. The by-laws reported by the committee appointed to draft them were taken up and read a section at a time and after some discussion and some changes were adopted. The annual meeting of the association which is soon to be formally changed into a chamber of commerce will be held the first Tuesday in February. The suggested by-laws were amended in the following ways: It was made possible for twenty-five members to sign a call for a special meeting; the several departments may nominate their own officers and committees section four of article 15 was amended to make it impossible for the association to be committed to any candidate for any office, by its officers, departments, or committees.

The section which occasioned the most debate was as follows:

Sec. 5. This association shall not be committed for or against any public question or to the support of any candidate for local office by any of its officers, committees or departments but its board of directors may refer to a meeting of the association any public question or the candidacy of any person affecting any local public question for such action as the association sees fit to take.

Mayor Davis led in the opposition to this section and maintained that the best interests of the association would be served by using only the opening lines. After considerable discussion on motion of Dr. Black the whole section was cut out.

Another section eliminated was the following:

Sec. 6. No indebtedness shall be incurred or created by or on behalf of this association in any sum greater than the funds pledged or on hand.

Among those who took part in the discussion were Frank J. Heintz, F. J. Andrews, Bernard Gause, Dr. Bowe, Thomas Worthington, Judge Barnes, C. R. Knoellberg, E. F. Johnston, H. M. Capps, Frank Byrnes and J. F. Brennan. The chairman allowed all possible latitude in debate and all the discussion was indulged in with evident good humor. FROM THE FAR NORTH.

John N. Marsh has received a letter from his son Arthur in Alberta Canada, stating that they are having a mild winter, the mercury only registering thirty below which is warm for them as the air is so dry they feel the cold far less than in places where there is more moisture.

He says the Indians predict warmer weather than usual from the fact that the grouse have less feathers on their legs.

The writer says the wolves are making greater depredations among the flocks owing to the fact that the small amount of snow enables the natural prey of the wolves to escape leaving the sheep more dependent on other source for assistance.

An Indian who had some traps in the forest went to look after them one day and not returning his friends went to seek him and found traces of a fearful struggle, the bodies of five dead wolves and all that was left of the red man was his moccasins and feet in them.

ICE AND WIND PLAY HAVOC WITH WIRES

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES BADLY CRIPPLED

Railroads Without Telegraph Service and Have Trouble in Moving Trains — Burlington Dispatches Trains From This City.

With one or two exceptions Jacksonville was cut off from communication by wire with the outside world for a time Monday as the result of the ice and wind storm which played havoc with telephonic and telegraphic communication early Monday morning.

Shortly before 2 o'clock Monday morning a heavy downpour of rain visited the city and was followed by a cold northwest wind which caused a heavy coating of ice to form on the wires. Aided by the strong wind this ice caused wires and poles to snap until there were only one or two wires connecting with other cities left standing, although the local service was not badly damaged.

Boundaries of Storm Belt.

Bluffs and Alexander seemed to be the boundaries of the storm belt, on the east and west respectively, as the Wabash wires west of Bluffs and east of Alexander were in working condition. About 100 poles between this city and Bluffs along the Wabash right of way were down and a string of poles between North Main and Brown streets were broken down. The company's telegraph service was also seriously crippled between this city and Alexander and for a time Monday the wires of the Central Union Telephone company were used to assist in moving the trains.

Damage to the telephone service of the Central Union company seemed to be the heaviest northwest, as Beardstown could not be called, but late in the afternoon communication could be had with Litterberry and through that exchange to Virginia.

Alexander, Springfield, Murrayville and Waverly were also among the towns that had service to this city, although communication to other points was entirely cut off.

As far as reported to the local office late Monday night the only poles that were down, were some just east of the city on the state road and a few on the Vandalla road. The local service was not very badly damaged and only twenty-five cases of telephones in trouble were reported up to last night.

Illinois Damage West of City.

Most of the trouble that the Illinois Telephone company had to contend with was west of the city, Chapin, Bluffs and Meredosia being entirely cut off. The lines to Franklin were also out but their lines to Murrayville, White Hall and through to St. Louis remained intact. Fifty instruments in the city were out of business.

The Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad was also without communication on this branch but this did not seriously affect their train service. The Chicago & Alton was without any service whatever, excepting a wire to Murrayville and they could not tell when a train was coming in to the city until they heard the trains whistle. This together with the wreck at Petersburg seriously crippled their train service and their trains were running as much as four hours late.

Burlington Dispatches Here.

The Burlington road had a train of locomotives out working on the line between Beardstown and Herrin and as most of the damage to their wires was between this city and Beardstown the dispatchers came to this city and dispatched the trains from the local station until about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. First Dispatcher Fred Hubbard and Dispatcher H. Renfrow were working here and they returned to Beardstown on the passenger at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the wires being in working condition by that time.

Probably the worst damage was suffered by the telegraph companies as neither the Western Union nor the Postal had any wires out of this city. Manager Pine of the Western Union sent his messages via the Central Union wires in the morning, but before noon this service was not accessible for a few hours. As the Journal's leased Associated Press office came into the Western Union office in this city other arrangements for the telegraphic report were necessitated and after considerable work Wire Chief W. L. Taylor of the Central Union secured a telegraph wire over the Central Union lines, which was used.

A New Blend of Coffee

Our Own Mix

I have handled and sold coffee now for years. Have tried all blends, and kinds, and at last I have discovered a combination of three different coffees, that by mixing them together in their right proportion I have now a blend of coffee that could not give better satisfaction at any price, even if I would ask 50c per pound. Its flavor, strength and amber color. However I will retain a low price. You will say, oh, that's every corner grocer's talk; they all say we have the best. Well seeing is believing, and tasting proves it all. I will guarantee that you can not duplicate this blend of coffee at from 5 to 10c per pound from the other fellow—and if you will try a sample pound and it does not prove as I say I will not charge you one cent for it. We give you all coffee—we can't afford to give any premiums or presents. If we did we would have to charge more for the coffee. A trial is all we ask and the price is only 30c PER POUND.

ZELL'S GROCERY

Use Buying Judgment

When you order meat for your table be careful to have just what you want selected. Some cuts of meat look well but have very little nutriment in them. Others possibly do not equal them in appearance but reach the high mark in food value. If you tell us what you want it is our pleasure to try and select for you meat that will come up to your requirements. Nothing can take the place of meat on the family table and it is no more costly than other eatables if good selections are made. We are ready to select steaks or roasts or boiling pieces for you and then to make prompt delivery.

NINA DIMITRIEFF HEARD IN ARTISTIC PROGRAM

Soprano Singer of Rare Ability Delights Audience at Illinois Woman's College.

Mme. Nina Dimitrieff soprano was the attraction of the artists' course at the College of Music Monday evening. The inclement weather did not prevent a large audience from being present and the program of voice was one of the best ever heard in Jacksonville. Mme. Dimitrieff, is a native of Russia and is making a tour of the large cities of the United States, and the college felt quite fortunate in getting her to come here. Her voice is of beautiful quality, wide in range, sympathetic, and in fact possesses all the characteristics which go to round out the full artist. She showed wonderful control of her voice and the fine temperament displayed was a revelation to the audience. Not only is her singing superb but she possesses a strong and pleasing personality. The audience last night was prone to let her go after the program was concluded and she graciously responded to an encore entitled "Going to the Fair," by Coats. She was also compelled to repeat the "El Pass par La Lorraine" by Arcadet. Parts one and three of the program were Russian songs and after the second part "Blue-bell" by MacDowell was given as an encore.

Mme. Dimitrieff will sing tonight at Bloomington, Indiana, in concert with Boris Hambrough, the celebrated cellist.

Too much praise cannot be given Miss Louise Miller who acted as the accompanist of the evening. She gave the singer wonderful support and display remarkable ability in her work.

SERVICES GROWING IN INTEREST AT NORTHMINSTER REVIVAL

Evangelist W. A. Bodell Preaches Sermon Sunday Afternoon on "How Big is the Moon"—Meetings to Continue This Week.

Sunday was a big day in the Northminster church revival and again last night there was a large crowd in attendance. The song service of last evening was augmented by a selection, "My Father Knows," by Rev. Bodell, assisted by Mrs. Jennie DeFreitas and Mrs. Naomi Martin. Jesse Hastings gave the opening prayer. "Deal With My Master Kindly," Gen. 24-49, was the text from which the evangelist preached.

The entire membership of the Sunday school was brought together Sunday morning when Evangelist Bodell gave a number of illustrations from the Bible. He spoke particularly of the age of knowing right from wrong in a child, placing it at 8 years. The largest audience of the meeting thus far was Sunday evening, when the sermon was from the text, "How Shall We Escape, if We Neglect so Great a Salvation." The meeting Sunday afternoon was under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The song service was led by Luther Smith and Miss Hester Spoons sang "The Sparrow Song." The chorus was invited to remain during the men's meeting and the service throughout was inspiring.

The service Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was largely attended and the evangelist preached a most powerful sermon on the subject, "How Big is the Moon." He based his sermon on the text, "For what if some did not believe, shall the unbelief of some make the faith of God of non-effect?" Roman 3-3. He said in part:

The ancient Germans had a grand old legend connected with the terrific battle of Chalons, at which, in the middle of the fifth century, the combined forces of the Visigoths and the Romans obtained a sanguinary triumph over the invading hordes of Attila. The bloody work of the sword was done, and the vast plain strewn with countless heaps of the dead. But for three nights following, so ran the tale, the spirits of the slain might be discovered hovering over the scene of their late encounter continuing their ruthless conflict in the air.

The like has been the age, long war waged against the gospel, which, if at first was conducted mainly with the sword, has now resolved itself into endless conflicts, of opposing spirits.

This senseless warfare against the Bible is nothing new; it is as old as sin itself. The modern theories of skepticism and unbelief are but the revampings of older theories and teachings.

The truth of God's word does not depend upon man's foolish notions, nor his prejudiced theories, nor his sin-befogged conceptions, nor his seeming reasonable deductions; it is above these. "The carnal mind does not understand the things of the spirit, for they are spiritually discerned."

Men's attitude to the truth cannot change it. Truth never changes though man's conception of it may. The facts concerning the nature and movements of the sun remain the same, though man's notion of it may change from time to time.

Man's intellectual conceptions or philosophical theories about the truth are not necessarily the truth. Jesus said, "Thy word is truth," and man's intellectual or moral theories concerning it cannot affect it.

There are many causes of skepticism. It is often due to mere obstinacy. There are two classes of skeptics in the world, the unbeliever and the disbeliever, the doubter and the trifler. The former says he can't believe, the latter won't believe.

Another cause of unbelief in the Bible is the ignorance of it. It is amazing how little even professing Christians know about this wonderful book. We deceive ourselves regarding our own knowledge. How can a man believe some things about that which he knows nothing? If he does believe, it can be nothing but a dumb stupid belief.

Again men assume to disbelieve the Bible, alleging that it is inconsistent with reason. And this in a sense is true; as true as darkness is inconsistent with light, or as sin is inconsistent with righteousness. It would be strange indeed if shallow human reason were not at time inconsistent with the omniscience of the divine mind. The carnal mind is enmity to God, and does not understand the things of the spirit.

Paul puts it after this fashion, "Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God because of the blindness of the heart." Because men do not understand the Bible they think it is opposed to reason; but which is only evidence, that it is higher strongest evidence that it is not God's book.

What man can produce, man can exhaust. The men who have delved most deeply into this book are the most devout believers of it.

Men assume to disbelieve the Bible on the ground that it is unscientific. But science itself is unscientific. That which was regarded as science ten years ago is not regarded as science now. The theories of science are constantly changing. The facts of science and the Bible always agree, while the theories of science and the Bible frequently differ.

The speaker after narrating a number of instances in the Bible, where inconsistencies were found by doubters, took up some of the reasons why men should believe the Bible. Among them were the following: "They should believe it because Jesus Christ believed it; because of the fulfilled prophecies; because of the wonderful unity running all through the book; because of the victories over the attacks."

We are content. Where you argue, we feel. Where you doubt, we know. Where you hesitate, we are certain. Where you deny, we live. Hold yourselves if you will, and must, to be the sport and prey of every angry circumstance and every pitiless law, but we will trust in the word of the Lord. In the cold, in

Mr. Bellatti Points Out Advantages In Contract With Water Company

Editor Journal: As there seem to be some citizens of Jacksonville who are under misapprehension as to the situation, which made a compromise with the Jacksonville Water company advisable, and also as to the scope and meaning of the compromise agreement entered into by the city with the water company, I feel that a few words of explanation as to the reason for making the compromise and as to the meaning of some parts of the contract may not be wholly without benefit.

The Jacksonville Water Works company, claiming to have complied with the terms of the ordinance of September 23, 1904, granting a franchise to Mackey & Gardner, brought suit against the city to compel the city to turn over to the company the city plant. The city was confronted with the possibility that the water company might be successful and the city lose its water plant, which is worth approximately $300,000.

If the city could have had absolute assurance that it would be successful in that suit, then there might have been no good reason for the compromise. It is, however, impossible to forecast with certainty the result of a law suit, and the city had to face the possibility of defeat, and if defeated, the loss of its water plant. Counsel for the city and the city council thought it better for the city to obtain from the water company a clear release of all claim to the city water plant by compromise than to take the chance of losing the city plant by fighting the law suit to a conclusion.

The compromise was made with the express stipulation that it should not become effective unless ratified by the electorate of the city, and it is for the voters to decide whether the compromise contract shall become effective or be annulled.

If the voters ratify the compromise then the water company releases all claim to the city water plant and dismisses its suit, and the city purchases water from the water company for eighteen months. And at the expiration of the eighteen months, the contract between the city and the water company terminates. If the voters do not ratify the compromise, the city must fight the law suit to a conclusion and if finally defeated, must lose its water plant.

As to the scope of the contract; it provides that the city will take from the water company all the water it needs for eighteen months, and that the water company will at all times during the eighteen months furnish the city all the water that it needs. And the city agrees to pay the water company for the water furnished the one half part of the amount that the city receives from consumers. The city council desired that the city should receive water for fire protection and other city purposes proper without having to keep account of the quantity of water used and therefore the method of arriving at the amount to be paid to the water company for all the water furnished was that the city should pay nothing for water used for city purposes, but should pay one half of the gross receipts from water sold by the city to consumers. That is, the city purchases all the water needed and pays the water company a sum equal to one half of the amount received by it for water sold by the city to consumers; with the further provision that there shall be rebated to the city a sum equal to the one-half part of the amount that the water company may receive from water sold by it to parties outside of the city of Jacksonville. The city will receive the water in its reservoir, and the stand-pipes and will itself distribute the water through its own plant for use and for sale to water consumers, and will itself collect from the users of water for the water so sold to them. The city will manage and control its plant and the sale of water to consumers as it has in the past.

It has been suggested that some citizens fear that the compromise contract may be held to make the city a partner of the water company, and hence liable for the debts of that company.

1. The city has no power or authority to enter into a partnership with any individual or corporation, and therefore could not be held liable as a partner in any case.

2. There is not a single element of a partnership in the contract. There is no combining of capital or services and no sharing of prospective profits. The water company is to manage and control its plant without let or hindrance on the part of the city, and the city is to manage and control its plant without let or hindrance on the part of the water company. The provision for the payment of one half of the gross receipts from water sold to consumers is simply a method of ascertaining the amount to be paid by the city for water furnished by the water company.

It is said that some voters think that if the water company pumps water one day in every fifteen days there will be a compliance with the contract. That is a misapprehension. The letter and spirit of the contract is that the water company will furnish the city all the water it needs at all times during the eighteen months specified; and pumping one day in fifteen would not be a compliance with that agreement. And as the company is to be paid only for water furnished, it would serve the water company no purpose to pump only one day in fifteen. I presume that misapprehension arises from the reading of Sections eight and nine of the contract. Counsel for the city and the city council felt that the single pipe line which the water company has that company might be temporarily wholly unable to comply with the contract, and therefore those sections were inserted to protect the interests of the city in either event. But those sections do not in any way affect the provisions of the contract that require the water company to supply the city with all the water it needs at all times.

The voters should bear in mind that it is not whether this is the best contract that could be made for the city under any circumstances, but whether it is best for the city under the existing circumstances. Here were conflicting claims and interests to be considered and to be adjusted, modified, rescinded or waived in some manner or to some extent; that the prime object (the settlement of a very important law suit) might be attained. A settlement of such conflicting claims and interests cannot be had unless each party is willing to concede something.

FAVORS REBUILDING THE ILLINOIS-MICHIGAN CANAL

Speaker at Banquet of Ottawa Business Men Gives Reasons For His Position.

Ottawa, Ill., Jan. 20.—The immediate rehabilitation and enlargement of the Illinois & Michigan canal will demonstrate the utility and necessity of a future deep waterway instead of proving a hindrance to the plans of those who favor a ship canal. This was the contention of Finlay Drummond, of the Utica Fire Brick company, in a speech delivered before the Ottawa Business Men's association at its annual banquet in the Hotel Clifton tonight.

"Even as it exists the old canal has been proven beyond a doubt to be a profitable route for shipping and has also proven that it can turn in a handsome net revenue each year to the state treasury," said Mr. Drummond. "This net revenue derived from tolls will be increased with the enlargement of the locks and aqueducts to a modern size and it will continue to pile up in the state treasury for the use of the people of the entire state during the ten or twelve years that must necessarily intervene before a deep waterway can be put in working order."

"Commerce during that time is bound to increase materially, and that increase will in itself show the need of a deep waterway to connect the Sanitary District ship canal with the Illinois river and the waters beyond."

"As the deep waterway is now contemplated, it will parallel the route of the present I. & M. canal, so that the old route can readily be used as the most economical and efficient method of getting the material for the construction of the larger canal to the points where they will be needed."

"But there is a more important reason still for the appropriation of a million dollars by the present legislature for the rehabilitation of the old canal; that is, that the shippers need this waterway at once to help them out of the car shortage difficulty and to provide a cheap transportation line to the markets on the lake front and on the rivers and other waterways of the state. In its present condition the old canal must continue to lie practically idle while it is enlarged. The traffic will soon exceed its capacity. The shippers who favor the appropriation of a million dollars for this purpose are not asking a gift from the state, but only a temporary advancement of moneys which their own traffic will pay back to the state in a very short time through the tolls charged from its transmission through the state's waterway."

Another speaker who favored the rehabilitation of the canal at once was Norman D. Fraser, of the Chicago Portland Cement company. Both men were asked to speak by the Ottawa business men, who are intensely interested in the proposed rehabilitation.

AMERICAN WIRE FENCE. Best known—known as best. Gay's Reliable Hardware.

FROM ALABAMA.

Cintronele, Ala., Jan. 18, 1913. Editor Journal: We will have to write our folks a short letter tonight to let them know that we are still among the living and having a good time. It is our desire to write one more letter after this, but we fear that we will have so much to tell if we wait that our letter would be too fat.

We have met so many Illinois people here that it seems like home. We met a new one the other day, Professor Zeller, well known in Jacksonville.

The old soldiers down here have an organization called the "Blue and the Gray." They have an annual banquet and the 1st was their day. Not being an old soldier we did not think of attending, but a committee waited on us in the morning, inviting us as a courtesy to the press; We went and are glad that we did, for we met many fine people and were exceedingly well entertained.

The banquet was held in a large hall, the room being beautifully decorated with the national colors, hunting and flowers. The walls were decorated with mottoes, such as these: "Long will we remember the days gone by." "Those days are past and gone." "We'll grasp each other by the hand," and many others that made one feel good to see on an occasion like this. The windows of the hall were wide open and the balmy south wind came floating in, stirring the bunting and waving the flags, but everybody was comfortable.

The organization is pretty evenly balanced by a membership of union and confederate veterans and they are doing all they can to obliterate prejudices and rub out the long drawn and bitter line between the north and the south. We are glad to report that this band of old veterans are succeeding in their endeavors, in this part of the south.

The banquet was immense. Every kind of vegetables, meat, fowls, all manner of cakes, salads, coffee and other things that go to make up a perfect banquet. The center piece was a large head of cabbage scooped out and stuck with cloves, filled in with nut salad and highly decorated with small silk flags and red cherries, set on a yellow butterfly napkin, on a bed of parsley. This piece was made by Mrs. Foreman of Tallula, Ill.

The exercises were opened by Mr. Adrain DeLong, president of the association, with a very feeling speech, in which he defined the object of their association. Then followed music and songs, all excellent, and appropriate for the occasion. There was some very fine singing by a male quartet composed of the Messrs. Emil Herber, W. H. Rowe, C. W. Thomas and Frank Herber. They sang the old war songs, which were very acceptable to the audience.

Professor Zeller made a good address, as well as others.

The little Methodist preacher, Rev. Mr. Eckford, threw his whole weight into his speech and received loud and long applause.

We might write columns about this affair, but we won't; but we must give the cake to Miss Ida Bandow of Laporte, Ind., for the way she recited, "Old Glory."

Mrs. McCarty went walking with us this afternoon. We tried to take her into a swamp to see an alligator, but she balked on us. If we remember right we heard her promise some one up north that she would send them an alligator for a pet and now she refuses to go within sight of one's nest. We are doing a good deal of walking and we find that it pays.

The roses are blooming and the people are making garden. Our next neighbor on the east has been hoeing in her garden for the last two days and this afternoon they set out cabbage plants. Our neighbor on the west finished setting out one acre of onions. We had a mess of greens yesterday for dinner.

Grandpa Herber died yesterday morning at an early hour. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon. Mr. Herber was about 86 years old and has been in declining health for several years.

Hoping this may find you all as well as it leaves us, we are

D. K. McCarty.

CORROBORATION.

Of Interest to Journal Readers.

For months Jacksonville citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Jacksonville residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if their personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Jacksonville reader.

John Minter, 423 South East St., Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I know them to be worthy of praise. I have been telling of my experience with this remedy ever since 1897. I took Doan's Kidney Pills for pain in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble and found them effective. I always advise the use of this remedy when I have an opportunity."

CIGARMAKERS' UNION STATEMENT.

Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 20, 1913. Editor Journal—

In order to correct a wrong impression which seems to have gained currency, and which may have been caused by the publication of an article in Sunday's Journal, with reference to the closing of the cigar factory of A. F. Franks, the public is hereby informed by Cigarmakers' union No. 114 that so far as we are aware, there were no differences whatever between the firm of A. F. Franks Cigar company and the C. M. U. No. 114 of the International union.

At the time the men were laid off, about Jan. 1, they were under the impression that they would return to work after a few weeks' idleness. The permanent closing of the factory is an entirely voluntary act on the part of the A. F. Franks Cigar company.

Foods That Bind Little Children

Start Them Off Right With a Good Laxative and Then Watch Their Diet.

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constipate the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers, is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, piles, headaches, sleeplessness and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it. Thousands endorse it, among them Mrs. M. E. Darling, R. F. D. No. 4, Bellview, Pa., who writes: "I certainly think Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin saved my baby's life. Marjorie is a bottle baby and could not get her food to digest, but I found by giving her a small dose of Syrup

MARJORIE DARLING.

Pepsin when she had colic, it always cured her." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it contains proportionately more. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin, as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-gripping and free from injurious ingredients.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal card will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

helps the stomach to digest food properly, starts the liver into new activity, removing the poisons from the blood, and the various organs get rich, red blood, instead of being ill-nourished. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over 40 years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, and a trial box will be mailed you.

Madam—Whether you need flour today or not, you'll do well to trade with the dealer who sells Zephyr Flour

IN the retail trade, when a dealer gets the agency for Zephyr Flour, it is considered positive evidence that he stands high in his community as a man and high in the trade as a square merchant. It means, too, that the flours in his store are of highest quality.

Zephyr Flour

We have spent endless care, time and money perfecting Zephyr Flour, the famous hard wheat flour of Kansas. We wash it and wash it and grind it and grind it, watching it all the while. Cooks who use it get a reputation for their bread and cakes, their biscuit and pies.

It is so good, so sure, that we sell it with a positive guarantee to satisfy. Any Zephyr Flour dealer will, on request, return the money paid for any sack of Zephyr Flour that fails to please. Save the chemist's test certificate of the wheat and flour, found in each sack of Zephyr Flour. It assures uniform high quality or another sack from your dealer or from us.

DR. FRANK P. NORBURY PLANS NEW WORK FOR YEAR 1913

State Alienist Will Submit Book on Mental Diseases to Authorities and Interesting Subjects to be Discussed in Series of Articles.

Announcement has been made of a new work for the coming year which has been undertaken by Dr. Frank P. Norbury, alienist of the state board of administration. This work was mentioned briefly in the Journal a few weeks since.

Within the coming twelve months Doctor Norbury will contribute to the authorities on the subject a new text book on "Mental Diseases." The book, which will be a 450-page volume, is to be finished by fall of this year. The alienist has contracted also to write another text on "Nervous Diseases," which is to be delivered and made ready for text use in 1914. This is also to be a 450-page volume.

New Book to be Published. In addition to these two works, Doctor Norbury, with the co-operation of Dr. Eugene Cohn of Peoria State hospital, will publish a new text book on "Mental Diseases in the Nervous System." The contract for the delivery of this text has not been signed.

Doctor Norbury is among the most widely known students of mental and nervous subjects. As alienist of the state board in charge of the charitable institutions he has had a wide experience in the observation and study of these phases. This experience, however, was prefaced with years of research in other fields. It is expected that the contribution of the two books already contracted for, and of the book which is now under consideration, will arouse keen interest in the mental research world.

State Conference to be Held. Doctor Norbury will be one of two speakers at the Mental Hygiene conference and exhibit which is to be held at the City club of Chicago, January 21 to 25. Also A. L. Bowen, secretary of the state charities commission, of Springfield, Ill., will speak Friday, Jan. 24, the former on "State Hospitals, Their Work and Plans for the Future," and the latter on "The Work of the State Charities Commission."

The exhibit will constitute a special feature.

EVIL DOERS.

Wanted to See World—The world as bounded by the confines of Clarksville, a village near Taylorville was much too small for Wallace Clark and Henry Paschall, each aged thirteen years, who were returned to their home after a brief trip abroad which ended ignominiously when the two were captured while waiting for a freight train to take them further.

Want Marriage Set Aside; Claim Fraud—Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Hoult of Christian, Ill., asked an annulment of their marriage, performed last May. They said they were hooded into marriage by Hoult's father and that the bridegroom was a minor at the time.

Virgin Tailor Shot 3 Times—J. B. Hein, a Virgin tailor, was shot three times by Marion Graham, who escaped. Two of the bullets entered his right arm and the third his right side. He is in a dangerous condition. Hein and a friend were engaged in a friendly conversation when Graham started a quarrel, witnesses assert.

15-Year-Old Boys Shot Robbing Car—An impulse to rob a freight car on which they were riding from East St. Louis resulted in two boys being shot and two others being arrested by night watchmen for the Wabash railroad at St. Louis. Two of the lads are in the St. Louis city hospital and two are in the House of Detention.

2 Youths Face Forgery Charge—George Hatchel, aged 25 years and Harold Ford, aged 21 were arrested by Police Sergeant Pearl Robinson and Officers Strickman and Vollman on a charge of passing worthless checks upon Elgin business men.

Daylight Watch Snatching—Crazed for lack of more whiskey, John Armstrong of Peoria, after trying to beg a dime of J. T. Miller, of Stavely, Alberta, Canada, grabbed his watch. The Canadian grappled with his assailant threw him and held his feet in the air until Patrolman Couch, from the Main and Adams street corner arrived and took charge of him.

Another Seventeen-Year-Old—Pearl Jacquin, a propenseous but precocious youngster of 17 summers was arrested in Peoria. It is alleged she stole $18 from a male visitor whom she smuggled into her apartment on Friday night.

She has had a room with a respectable family, and her landlady is shocked at finding that the girl is not the innocent young thing she seemed. She was horrified when she found the sanctity of her boarding house had been surreptitiously invaded.

The girl has been in the Home of the Good Shepherd and is now under $200 bond on the charge of having stolen a dress.

W. R. Fox, 193 W. Washington St., Noblesville, Ind., says: "After suffering many months with kidney troubles, after trying other remedies and prescriptions, I purchased a box of Foley Kidney Pills which not only did me more good than any other remedies I ever used, but have positively set my kidney right. Other members of my family have used them with similar results." Take at the first sign of kidney trouble.—City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS—BE BETTER LOOKING—TRY OLIVE TABLETS.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

These Olive Tablets oil the bowels—yet have no oil taste. They are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Proper Expression of Appreciation. A compliment should be as quickly given for good goods and good service as a kick for defective goods and poor service. Most people realize this. That is why so many have written to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy telling of remarkable cures of coughs and colds it has effected, and expressing their appreciation of the good qualities of this well known remedy. For sale by all dealers.

WRECK ON CHICAGO AND ALTON NEAR PETERSBURG

Seven Tanks of Oil Scattered For Nearly Quarter of a Mile—Tramp Injured in Smashup.

Petersburg, Jan. 20.—An unidentified tramp was painfully injured, and seven tanks of oil were wrecked, when a north-bound Chicago & Alton train was derailed near the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis crossing at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. The tramp when rescued was lying in a pool of oil.

The wreck was caused by one car leaving the rails some distance from the crossing. The train was running at a fair rate of speed when the car jumped the tracks. The trainmen were not aware of the danger until six other cars left the rails, two of them tumbling down a thirty-foot embankment. The oil tanks gave way and the roadway for almost a quarter of a mile was soaked with crude oil.

The engine was stopped as soon as possible, and after finding that the trainmen had escaped injury, the members of the crew began an investigation in an effort to determine the cause. While searching about they found the form of a man lying in the oil. He was rescued and taken to the station for treatment. Physicians attended him, and in addition to suffering from a quantity of oil which he swallowed it was found that his right knee was injured.

The belief is general that spreading rails caused the accident. Five cars were piled in a mass near the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis crossing and traffic was delayed.

Fires In Jacksonville

Monday's Courier had the following:

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

"Saturday evening the roof of the residence of Newton Sargent at 350 West Court street caught fire about 6:30 o'clock, burning a small hole. The fire department was called, but a Babcock extinguisher was used by a member of the department in putting out the fire."

Tuesday's Journal tells of a fire at 302 North East street, caused by a coal oil lamp, at which a woman was badly burned. The Journal says: "In the meanwhile the fire department was called and extinguished the fire with the chemical."

Only lack of information prevents EVERY HOME having its own Babcock. The cost is small; anybody can use it; it is always ready. There is nothing secret about it, and if you call at our office, 110 South West street, we will be glad to explain it to you fully.

Landmarks of Typewriter Progress

Such are all the recent developments of the

Remington

(Visible Models 10 and 11)

Among these developments are:
The Built-in Decimal Tabulator—which makes the decimal tabulating mechanism an integral part of the typewriter.
The Tabulator Set Key—which eliminates all hand setting of the tabulator stops.
The Column Selector—which determines, by the stroke of a single key, the exact point on each line where the writing is to begin.
The Adding and Subtracting Remington (Wahl Mechanism)—which combines in one typewriter, and in one operation, the functions of the writing machine and the adding machine.

Every one of these new developments is an evidence of the perpetual leadership of the Remington Typewriter. Illustrated booklet descriptive of all recent Remington improvements, sent on request.

26 EXPERIMENTAL FARMS.

That Number of New Ones to Be Established by I. C.

Twenty-six new experimental farms will be established soon along the lines of the Illinois Central railroad. President C. H. Markham announced yesterday. Fifteen will be located at various points on the Central of Georgia road, a subsidiary of the Illinois Central and eleven on the lines of the Illinois Central proper.

These will make a total of twenty-seven farms of this kind on the Illinois Central and thirty on the Central of Georgia. Most of the new farms along the Illinois Central proper will be in Mississippi.

Charles N. Brumfield is in charge of the agricultural work of both roads.
His headquarters are in Memphis, Tenn.

According to a plan adopted some time ago agreements are made with farmers to direct the cultivation of certain parts of their farms and a guarantee is given to protect each farmer from loss on account of crop failure. A number of farmers have entered into competition with the experimental farms and in several instances, it is said, have achieved more successful results.

Mrs. Inez Burrus Fouché of Bluffs was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Blood Bath Knocks Rheumatism

Remarkable Effects of a Remedy That Actually Irrigates the Entire Blood Supply.

It sounds queer to take a blood bath but that is precisely the effect of a most remarkable remedy known as S. S. S. It has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every enunciated becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every blood-poisoning atom of poison; it dislodges by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, dissolves acid accretions, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all, this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach, because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

The great Swift Laboratory has spent millions of dollars in perfecting, producing and placing in the hands of the public this wonderful remedy. So give your blood a good bath with S. S. S., for it knocks the worst forms of rheumatism every time.

You can get it at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. It is a standard remedy, recognized everywhere as the greatest blood specific ever discovered. If yours is a peculiar case and you desire expert advice, write to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

HOW MRS. BROWN SUFFERED

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Iola, Kansas.—“During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken twelve bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others.”—Mrs. D. H. BROWN, 809 N. Walnut St., Iola, Kan.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

PLAYGROUND ASSOCIATION

Business Session Held Yesterday at the Farmers' State Bank and Trust Co.'s Office.

The members of the playground association had a meeting yesterday morning in the office of the Farmers' State Bank and Trust Co., and transacted various matters of business.

President Heini said Mr. Ruyter's report showed among other things that there was 28,000 visits to the playground in the first ward last summer. Several recommendations were made by the gentleman regarding different matters.

The founder of the playground expecting to be absent much of the year left $500 for use on the playground the present year.

President Heini said some buildings were imperatively needed and some other improvements which would call for $300 more than the sum already announced and he was authorized by the association to appoint a committee to secure the sum and said he would announce it later and thought that all the members of the association should help raise the money.

Different persons spoke of the good reports they had heard of the work of the first ward playground last year and the feeling was unanimous that to services of Mr. Ruyter as director should be secured for the present season if at all possible.

Three vacancies in the association were reported; C. W. Brown, deceased, and J. W. Blackburn and R. O. Stoops removed and in their places J. J. Kelley, Principal W. R. Gore of the high school and Mrs. Thomas Worthington were chosen.

It was the sentiment of the meeting that playground apparatus should be placed on the school grounds in the other three wards.

A member called attention to the following article from the Decatur Herald.

Over eleven hundred (1,100) communities reporting as to their playgrounds indicates a large and growing interest throughout America in modern recreation. The Playground and Recreation Association of America, from its headquarters at 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, has just completed its large, annual task of taking a social census of playgrounds and recreational developments throughout the country. Its "Year Book" for 1912 is soon to be issued in The Playground, the monthly journal of the recreation movement.

Supervised Play in 285 Cities. In 285 cities, regularly supervised playgrounds and recreation centers, to the number of 2,994 were maintained during the year ending Nov. 1, 1912.

In addition to the 285 cities which had supervised play centers, forty cities reported center carried on without any supervision other than that of care takers. Nine additional cities reported centers under volunteer supervision. There were also in 130 cities, school playgrounds, many of which were reported under the supervision of regular school teachers during the day. These four classes of cities numbered altogether 473.

A New Profession. Employed play leaders to the number of 5,320 are reported by the 285 cities which maintain regularly supervised playgrounds and recreation centers. Here is a new social-service profession for which young people are earnestly preparing.

Not Repression But Leadership. These play leaders are necessary—not to safeguard property, or keep the peace, or repress active instincts, but to teach the play to the many children who do not know how to play to organize games, to free and guide active impulses and to shape growing citizens through the universal play instincts whose educational powers are suggested by Wellington's statement that he battle of Waterloo was won on England's playgrounds.

Large Sums Involved. A total expenditure of $4,929,121.79 was reported. In nineteen cities bond issues to recreation powers were authorized during the year to the amount of $2,524,775. In addition six cities which are included among the 285 which had supervised centers, report bond issues amounting to $1,260,629. This makes a total of $3,785,404 in bond issues last year—seventy-five times the total cost of the full year's work of the Playground and Recreation Association of America—which is wholly dependent on voluntary contributions.

Organized Street Play. Headway has also been made by the new and largely unfamiliar device of organizing street play in some selected, quiet blocks which are not used for through traffic, but only by the few wagons delivering goods occasionally to dwellings in the block. In ten cities, streets were set aside for play. In sixty-one cities, coasting on the streets was often permitted.

WANTS GOVERNMENT TO KEEP TIMBER

SPECIAL REPORT MADE BY COMMISSIONER OF CORPORATIONS.

Suggests Area Should Be Increased When Practicable—Sounds Note of Warning Because Few Control So Much.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The concentration into the hands of a few powerful interests of an enormous percentage of the timberlands of the United States has created a problem so grave for the nation in the judgment of Luther Conant, Jr., Commissioner of Corporations, that today he recommended to President Taft that the existing national forests not only be retained by the federal government, but increased as far as practicable.

This note of warning was sounded by the commissioner in forwarding to the president the full text of part one of the bureau of corporation's investigation of the lumber industry made by direction of congress. A summary of this report, showing the extent of concentrated control of timberlands was sent to the president and published nearly two years ago.

To increase government ownership of forest lands the commissioner urged that the forests of Alaska be included in reserve, as well as all timbered lands recovered in forfeiture suits. He advises a further searching inquiry into land grants of the past with the view of instituting additional forfeiture suits, if the facts justify the procedure.

Mr. Conant warns that attempts are still being made to "secure the transfer of public timberlands to private owners under the same pleas of settlement which in the past often proved wholly specious and insincere."

Seek Timber Rather Than Soil.

"Much of the timberland still remaining in public ownership," continues the commissioner, "is adapted only for timber purposes. All that could be properly asked by a bona fide settler is the surface of arable land after the timber has been removed, but too frequently back of the argument made in the name of the settler is the desire to acquire the timber or other natural resources rather than the soil itself. It seems desirable, therefore, to direct public attention to the fundamental difference between disposing of agricultural lands to actual settlers, whose industry contributes directly to the material and social upbuilding of the community, and the alienation of virgin timberlands, which do not require, and, indeed, hardly permit of, improvement by private owners, and the value of which is rapidly rising because of reduction in the supply and the increase in population. The public service involved in the mere speculative holding of this timber for an advance in price, under present conditions of settlement of the country, is practically negligible. When, moreover, such lands become concentrated in a comparatively few hands there is instead of a public service, a serious public danger.

"Without entering into a discussion of possible solutions of certain grave problems involved in the present concentration of timber ownership, it may be pointed out that the government today still owns exclusive of the forests of Alaska, about one-fifth of the country's total supply of merchantable standing timber. It is the agency best adapted to practicing reforestation on a large scale. Recently important suits for forfeiture of extensive timberlands have been brought by the government on the ground of non-fulfillment of conditions imposed in the grants by which these lands were alienated from the public domain. For these reasons, it would appear, therefore, that government may later be able to materially strengthen its relative position as a timber owner."

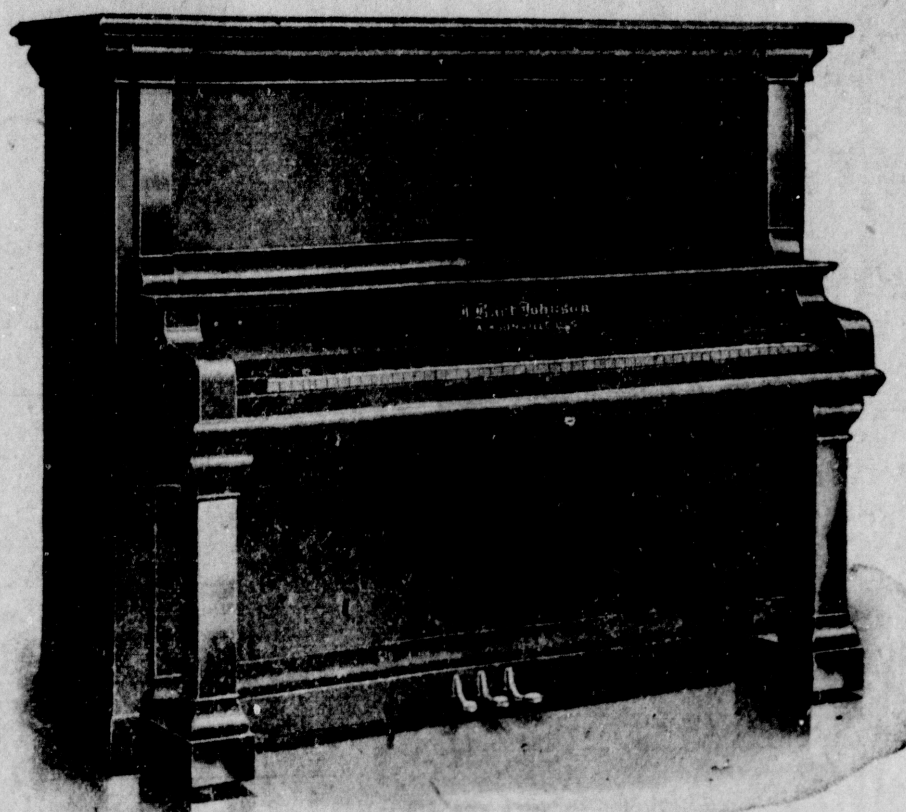

To Maintain Integrity of Forests.

"The facts set forth in this report clearly point to the desirability of maintaining the integrity of the national forests and of extending to other publicly owned timber, including forests in Alaska and timberlands that may be recovered in forfeiture suits now pending or subsequently instituted by the government, the cardinal principle of the national forest policy, namely, the retention of the fee to such lands at least until the timber is removed. Decision will then have to be made between retaining such lands for reforestation and disposing of the surface for agricultural purposes. It seems clear, moreover, that the fundamental principle to be followed in the sale of the timber itself is that the terms of sale should be such as to insure to the public treasury substantially the full stumpage value at the time that such timber shall be actually cut."

In the summary of the report previously published, the then commissioner of corporations, Herbert Knox Smith, set forth that the Southern Pacific company is the greatest private holder of timber in the United States, controlling 106 billion feet, the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, with 96 billion feet, the second largest and the Northern Pacific Railway company, with 56 billion feet, the third. Going further in detail the full report declares that the following five interests control in the aggregate of 102 billion feet of timber, practically all located in the Pacific northwest: Companies controlled by Charles A. Smith, of Minneapolis; Thomas B. Walker, of Minneapolis; concerns in which N. P. Wheeler and W. E. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Pa., are the chief stockholders; companies in which the A. B. Hammond company of New Jersey is the principal interest; and the timber interests of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound railway company (subsidiary to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway company).

"After enormous sales, the commissioner points out that the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe own together 33,500,000 acres of timbered and non-timbered lands, an area as large as England.

The Amalgamated Copper Co., Mr. Conant adds, owns over 1,000,000 acres of timberland and more than 100,000 acres of non-timbered land all in Montana, and Thomas B. Walker personally owns 760,000 acres in California.

Despite the great increase in stumpage values in recent years, Commissioner Conant foresees a growing rise in prices because of the diminished lumber supply and increasing population. Mr. Conant takes sharp issue with suggestions, amounting he says to almost a propaganda at the present time, that the price of stumpage should equal the cost of growing trees. The idea, he adds, seems incredible when it is considered that standing timber is the free gift of nature, requiring from scores to hundreds of years for its growth. The proposal, brought forth in the name of conservation and seized upon by some lumbermen, he continues, "is a proposal deliberately to hasten the evil which conservation ought to moderate—the evil of excessive prices." Taken in connection with the increasing concentration of timber control, he says, the proposition is a matter of grave concern to the consumer of lumber.

In advocating an extension of government ownership of forest lands, the commissioner points to the fact that there is a distinguishing characteristic resources as iron ore, coal and petroleum, in that no labor is required to discover it. Discussing means of increasing the government's ownership of timber lands, Mr. Conant suggests, if pending forfeiture suits are successful, a searching investigation to determine whether there has been such non-fulfillment of the various conditions attached to the Northern Pacific and other grants as would give congress just the legal cause to seek further forfeitures.

Points to Lavish Dissipation.

It is clear, concludes the report that there has been a lavish dissipation of standing timber and other natural resources of the national domain and that the beneficiaries of this policy too frequently have been not actual settlers, but capitalists who have been able to take advantage of legislation or its faulty administration, and thus accumulate vast holdings of timberland at a comparatively small cost and reap therefrom an enormous profit.

Subsequent parts of the lumber investigation to be submitted by the bureau of corporations will treat of concentration of ownership in particular areas, and costs, prices and competitive conditions.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began to use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.

JOURNAL RECEIVES ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE VIA CENTRAL UNION

Regular Leased Wire Over Western Union Goes Down in Storm—Only Through Telegraph Wire in City

Through the courtesy of the management of the Central Union Telephone Company, and its local wire chief, W. L. Taylor, the Journal received its Associated Press Telegraph report for this morning's issue over a wire belonging to that company.

The regular leased wire for the Journal's report comes into the Western Union Office in this city and is continued on from that office to the Journal office, but as this wire was put out of service by the serious snow and wind storm, as well as other Western Union wires, it was necessary to secure a wire from another source. After working nearly all afternoon, Mr. Taylor and his assistants got a wire for the Journal's report, but just before dark this was grounded by a fire alarm wire falling over it. The trouble was soon located and the wire cleared. The Central men remained on duty until a late hour last night keeping the wire in working order and did not leave the office until assured that no further trouble would be likely to occur.

ROBBERIES ARE REPORTED.

Mrs. S. B. Gray has reported to the police the loss of rings and other jewelry from her residence 1039 West College avenue. The robbery is supposed to have been committed Saturday afternoon for a watch, several rings and pins and a purse were missed Saturday night.

Thieves entered the grocery store of Edward DeFreitas on East Independence avenue Saturday night or Sunday morning. They took some cigars and tobacco and carried the cash register to a point a block from the store and there opened it but got nothing save a few stamps. This is the second time the place has been robbed and Mr. DeFreitas is going to keep a sharp lookout for any other marauders. He has offered a reward of $25 for the arrest of the thieves.

DR. T. W. PRITCHETT DIES AT HOME IN WHITEHALL

Was Former President of State Board of Dental Examiners and Civil War Veteran.

Dr. T. W. Pritchett, a former president of the State Board of Dental Examiners, died Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at his home in White Hall after a lingering illness. The deceased suffered a general breakdown one year ago and went west in an effort to regain his health. He received very little relief, however, and after a short time returned to his home in White Hall, gradually growing weaker until the end.

Dr. Pritchett was born in White Hall in 1839 and served in Company G, 91 Ill. Inf., during the four years of the Civil War. His company was captured by the rebels at Elizabethtown, Ky., and after being kept prisoners for a time the men were released. The company was re-organized and served the remainder of the war. Following the mustering out of the troops Dr. Pritchett went to St. Louis where he practiced dentistry for a time and then returned to White Hall where he has since resided. The deceased was a well known member of the dental profession and for some time was a member of the State Board of Dental Examiners, also being a former president. Last fall he resigned from the board on account of ill health. He was a member of the Masons and G. A. R.

Dr. Pritchett is survived by two sons, Dr. Ross A. Pritchett, and Charles Pritchett of White Hall, also by one sister who resides in Chicago. He was preceded in death by his wife who died one week ago.
